

SPUS INDY PARTNERS EVENTS

Discover the Stories of the American West and Indigenous North America

Step into the rich tapestry of the American West and Indigenous North America at the Eiteljorg Museum—an architectural gem nestled along Indianapolis' scenic Canal Walk. Begin your morning with a private, guided Discovery Tour through the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art, where art, culture, and history converge to illuminate powerful stories and enduring traditions.

This immersive experience brings to life the museum's mission:

"To explore the intersection of the arts, histories, and cultures of the past and present by sharing the diverse stories of the American West and the Indigenous Peoples of North America."

After the tour, enjoy time to explore the museum's captivating exhibitions at your own pace before gathering for a relaxed lunch on the museum's outdoor terrace—an inspiring setting overlooking White River State Park.
